The "Shamrock Society" is named in honor of the yacht, Shamrock. With DRYA co-founder, Commodore Harry J. Kendall at the helm, Shamrock logged an impressive 37 First Place finishes in as many consecutive races during the 1891-1896 seasons a record which remains unbroken to this day.

In conferring this honor, the Detroit Regional Yacht-racing Association recognizes your dedication to competitive yacht racing on the same waters where Commodore Kendall vigorously fostered the sport from those early years with the Shamrock until his death in 1947.
