

Detroit Regional Yacht-racing Association

The Detroit Regional Yacht-racing Association (DRYA) was established in 1912 and is dedicated to encouraging and improving the quality of racing by developing and publishing standard sailing instructions, assisting and supporting member clubs in coordinating the scheduling of races, regattas and related events. It serves in an advisory capacity to member clubs in the organization, conducts and scores races and regattas and provides equipment for conducting races as well as qualified judges to hear and decide protests and appeals. The DRYA supports sailboat racing by any and all other appropriate means.

Detroit Regional Yacht-racing Association

It's a commonly held belief that the initial sailboat race took place the first time two vessels found themselves sailing next to one another. Organized racing, however, took time to develop.

Overview

The 2010 DRYA seminars are developed with the novice and recreational sailor in mind.

These ten, weekly Wednesday night seminars are designed to introduce the sport of sailing to non-sailors and broaden the knowledge of newer sailors. They are FREE and open to the public. One need not belong to a club or the DRYA to attend. All seminars start at 7:00pm.

These seminars are an excellent way to meet boat owners, crew members, and other people interested in all aspects of sailing!

If it's Wednesday Night, It's Sailing Seminar Night!

The DRYA will once again offer a membership discount to first time members of the DRYA. If you have never joined the DRYA, this is the best time to do so. New members will receive a full membership at a reduced rate, if he or she signs up during a seminar.

Take advantage of this great opportunity for you & your crew members to become part of the DRYA and begin receiving important race mailings at home or office.

Attire is casual. Also, many of clubs will offer refreshments and dinner service before each seminar. Please contact the host club for more information regarding restaurant and beverage service.

Also, members of the DRYA clubs will be on hand to discuss their club membership and their racing and sailing instruction programs. You will also be able to sign up to go sailing with an experienced skipper to learn more.
